QUESTION 7
Which one of the following is the most common complication of endoscopic biliary sphincterotomy?
A. Haemorrhage.
B. Pancreatitis.
C. Cholangitis.
D. Perforation.
E. Diarrhoea.

Endoscopic retrograde cholangiopancreatography (ERCP
Endoscopic biliary sphincterotomy
- Removal of bile-duct stones
- Facilitate placement of stents, through malignant and benign biliary strictures
- Surgical exploration of common bile duct during cholecystectomy

ERCP – 1 in 20 complication of pancreatitis
Sphincterotomy – 1 in 100 bleeding
Perforation rare complication